Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee ☒ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☐ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 3: Report About Any Businesses You Own as a Sole Proprietor

12. Are you a sole proprietor of any full- or part-time business?

☒ No. Go to Part 4.

☐ Yes. Name and location of business

A sole proprietorship is a business you operate as an individual, and is not a separate legal entity such as a corporation, partnership, or LLC.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

_____
Name of business, if any

_____
Number, Street, City, State & ZIP Code

Check the appropriate box to describe your business:

- ☐ Health Care Business (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27A))
- ☐ Single Asset Real Estate (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B))
- ☐ Stockbroker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53A))
- ☐ Commodity Broker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(6))
- ☐ None of the above

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

☐ Yes. I am filing under Chapter 11 and I am a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

Part 4: Report if You Own or Have Any Hazardous Property or Any Property That Needs Immediate Attention

14. Do you own or have any property that poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable hazard to public health or safety? Or do you own any property that needs immediate attention?

☒ No.

☐ Yes. What is the hazard? _____

If immediate attention is needed, why is it needed? _____

For example, do you own perishable goods, or livestock that must be fed, or a building that needs urgent repairs?

Where is the property? _____

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

Part 7: Sign Below*For you

I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List All of Your PRIORITY Unsecured Claims

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

☐ No. Go to Part 2.

☒ Yes.

2. List all of your priority unsecured claims. If a creditor has more than one priority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. If a claim has both priority and nonpriority amounts, list that claim here and show both priority and nonpriority amounts. As much as possible, list the claims in alphabetical order according to the creditor's name. If you have more than two priority unsecured claims, fill out the Continuation Page of Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3.

(For an explanation of each type of claim, see the instructions for this form in the instruction booklet.)

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245 filing fee

$75 administrative fee

+ $15 trustee surcharge

$335 total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

---

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc\_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Re: Chapter 7 Bankruptcy

Dear Mr. Jones:

We are pleased that you have selected Carmody MacDonald, P.C. (the "Firm") to serve as your counsel. I would like to take a moment and confirm the terms and conditions of the Firm representation of you regarding the filing of a chapter 7 bankruptcy.

The Firm has agreed to represent you in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for a flat fee of $3,500.00 which represents our attorneys' fees. You also will be responsible for the filing fee of $335.00 and a $50.00 charge to run a credit report if you require one. Your fee and filing fee have been paid in full. You also will be responsible for any out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Firm in connection with our representation of you. The costs of the Debt Counseling and Financial Management classes you are required to attend are payable by you directly to the companies offering those classes.

You will not receive monthly invoices for services rendered as this matter is being handled on a flat fee basis. If the case is converted to hourly for any reason, you will receive a monthly invoice. The Firm's invoice to you will include fees and separate charges for out-of-pocket expenses. Each invoice is due and payable upon receipt. The Firm reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month (12.68% APR) on invoices that are 30 days or more past due. The Firm also reserves the right to withdraw as counsel upon the non-payment of any invoice. If you ever have a question about an item in an invoice, please do not hesitate to contact me. In addition to my hourly rate I may occasionally use other lawyers and paralegals to assist me in your matter. Their hourly rates range from $100.00 an hour to $450.00 per hour. My present hourly rate is $375.00 per hour.

Carmody MacDonald

I have enclosed a copy of the Firm's Terms of Representation as well as Important Information Regarding Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. Both of these documents are incorporated in this letter. By signing this letter you agree to those terms and conditions of representation and acknowledge that you have read and understand the Important Information Regarding Chapter 7 Bankruptcy.

If the terms of the proposed engagement are acceptable to you, please sign one copy of this letter where indicated and return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed envelope. You should retain one copy for your records. If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call at your convenience.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to be of service and to work with you.

Very truly yours,

TERMS OF REPRESENTATION

Confirmation of Services. Carmody MacDonald P.C. is pleased to have this opportunity to serve you. We have found from past experience that our relationship will be stronger and more effective when at the beginning of each representation there is a clear understanding of the services we will perform, the fees we intend to charge for such services, and the payment thereof. Therefore, it is our standard procedure to be very specific with our clients as to the scope of the services that we intend to provide and the terms by which we will bill fees and expenses. The letter accompanying these Terms of Representation sets forth that information. If what is set forth in the accompanying letter or in these Terms of Representation does not accurately describe your understanding of the services we are to perform or the terms for billing fees and expenses, please advise the attorney sending you the letter. Unless the attorney is notified promptly, we will assume that these Terms of Representation and the accompanying letter are acceptable to you.

Scope of Representation. The scope of our representation at this time is limited to providing only those services that are described in the accompanying letter. Unless otherwise noted, we will render those legal services that are necessary to the representation. No other services are intended to be provided without the mutual agreement of you, as our client, and Carmody MacDonald P.C. ("The Firm"). Later, if you determine to change materially the scope of our representation, we will need to document that in additional correspondence. Our representation is also limited to working on behalf of the client identified in the accompanying letter. The Firm does not represent any other entity or individuals unless specifically stated in the accompanying letter.

Attorneys and Others to Assist in Providing Services. When it is appropriate for your particular matter and when it will serve to reduce costs, we intend to assign parts of your work to other lawyers, paralegals, law clerks, and document clerks. Often these individuals specialize in certain areas, and we have found that allocating work to them allows us to produce our best legal product in the most efficient manner. In such an event, however, one attorney will be designated as your primary contact within The Firm. This attorney will supervise the work and will be responsible to you for the entire matter. The attorney who signed the accompanying letter will serve in that capacity for the work indicated.

Billing and Hourly Rates. Our fees are based primarily on the time spent. We generally bill for professional services on an hourly basis. Each attorney and other professional in The Firm has an hourly billing rate which is set based on that individual's expertise and experience. Generally, our fee rates are periodically adjusted, and bills for our fees will reflect these adjustments.

Hourly time charges will reflect the time spent on your matter, including, as appropriate, litigation due diligence investigation, legal research, document drafting, transaction closing, and travel in connection with this representation. However, we do not charge for attorney administrative time or for time spent in maintaining a general, current knowledge of the law. In addition, we bill on a per-item basis for computerized legal research (LEXIS and Westlaw services), filing fees and related litigation expenses (fines, court costs, deposition expenses, expert witness fees, cost of process server), telephone charges, delivery and FAX charges, special database storage when established at your request, photocopying, and travel expenses.

Unless there are circumstances which prompt a different schedule, each month you will receive a computer-generated statement showing a description of the services performed through the end of that month, identifying the attorneys and others who performed the services, and itemizing expenses paid by us for your work. The Firm reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month (12.68% APR) on invoices that are 30 days or more past due. The Firm also reserves the right to withdraw as counsel upon the non-payment of any invoice.

Fees Not Contingent and Due Upon Receipt. Our fees are not contingent, and payment is due upon the receipt of the statement. If The Firm has not received any comment about the statement within 30 days of its receipt, we will assume that you found it acceptable. As a means of encouraging timely payment of our statements, we reserve the right to add a late charge of 1.5% per month (19.6 APR) to bills which are past due, i.e., statements that remain unpaid for more than 30 days.

Payment is to be made by check or draft payable to Carmody Macdonald P.C.

If any of our statements remain unpaid for more than 90 days, we may, consistent with our ethical and court-imposed obligations, cease to perform services until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the unpaid statements and future fees. In fairness to our many clients who promptly pay their statements each month, we reserve the right to take appropriate action with respect to such delinquent accounts.

Attorney-Client Communication. Our statements generally contain information protected by the attorney-client privilege. As the privilege could be deemed to have been waived if someone other than the client sees the privileged material, we recommend that you keep all of our statements in a separate file marked "Attorney-Client Privileged Materials," and keep the file in a secure place.

Payment of Third-Party Expenses. The Firm prefers that you pay directly any significant outside expense items related to your work and, when possible, we will direct such expenses to you for payment. Therefore, we often ask our vendors to bill our clients directly rather than having us incur the expense and then including the amount on our statement.

Termination of Services and Representation. You may terminate our services at any time. Termination of our representation does not, however, relieve you from the responsibility of paying those fees and expenses incurred through the date we were notified of such termination. Similarly, we may withdraw from this representation for a number of reasons, including failure to promptly pay the amounts indicated in our statements; failure to disclose all facts material to our representation; failure to act in accordance with our advice; or development of one or more circumstances which, in our judgment, impair our ability to maintain an effective attorney-client relationship. Upon termination of our services and representation by the client or our withdrawal from representation of the client, we will be entitled to be paid for all services rendered and costs and expenses paid or incurred on behalf of the client to the date of termination or withdrawal. We also will be entitled to payment at our standard billing rates for any work required of us in connection with the turnover of files to the client or new counsel and the orderly transition of pending matters to new counsel, and we also will be entitled to reimbursement of all expenses incurred by us in connection with such work. We will return to the client all papers and property belonging to the client, upon payment of all amounts owed by the client to The Firm. We reserve the right to make, at the client's expense, and retain copies of all documents generated or received by us in the course of our representation of a client. If a client requests documents from us, either during the course of our representation of the client or in connection with or following termination of or withdrawal from such representation, such documents will be provided at the client's expense, including both reproduction costs and professional fees for time expended in reviewing files to locate requested documents.

Estimates of the Cost of Services to be Performed. From time to time you may ask us to make an estimate of the cost of completing all or part of your matter. Because it is often difficult to estimate at the beginning of a project how much time it will take to complete it, we treat any estimate as an "educated guess" and not as an assurance that we will be able to do the work for the estimated price. When an estimate is given we will advise you when we are nearing the estimated price, and we will also advise you if we become aware that the estimate may be exceeded. At that time, you can decide whether to terminate our work on the project, modify the project, or proceed to completion with a different cost estimate.

Completion of Matter. After a particular matter is completed, we do not (unless you specifically request in writing that we do so) undertake to continue to review that matter and update you concerning legal developments, such as changes in applicable laws or regulations. If you do ask us to review a specific matter on which we have previously worked, we will consider that to be a new representation. Thus, while we may, from time to time, call to your attention issues or legal developments that might be relevant to your operations, we are not undertaking to do so as a part of this representation.

Unless previously terminated, our representation will end upon our sending you our final statement for services rendered with respect to this matter. If, upon any termination or completion of a matter, you wish to have your documents in our possession delivered to you, please advise us. Otherwise, all such documents will be transferred to the person responsible for administering our records retention program. In that event, they will, after a reasonable amount of time, be destroyed in accordance with our established policy. For various reasons, including the minimization of unnecessary storage expenses, we reserve the right to destroy or otherwise dispose of any documents which are retained by us after our representation of you ceases.

Client Confidences/Description of Client/Future Conflicts. Our clients are engaged in a wide variety of businesses. From time to time we represent clients who are industry competitors. In order to ensure confidentiality, we will not (unless you specifically grant us the authority to do so) discuss or otherwise make available to anyone, including other clients, any information about you, your business, or our work on your behalf and will not discuss or otherwise make available to you any information about any of our other clients (if any), their business, or any work on their behalf.

It is understood that our client for purposes of this representation is Paul Jones, II.

The Firm represents many other companies and individuals. It is possible that during the time that we are representing you, some of our present or future clients will have disputes or transactions with you. You agree that we may continue to represent or may undertake in the future to represent existing or new clients in any matter that is not substantially related to our work for you even if the interests of such clients in those other matters are directly adverse. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, we will have the right to represent debtors or other creditors in bankruptcy, workout, and other debtor-creditor matters in which you are a creditor. Your signature on the enclosed copy of this letter will constitute your consent to any and all such conflicting representations. We agree, however, that your prospective consent to conflicting representation contained in the preceding sentence shall not apply in any instance where, as a result of our representation of you, we have obtained proprietary or other confidential information of a non-public nature, that, if known to such other client, could be used in any such other matter by such client to your material disadvantage. (You should know that, in similar engagement letters with many of our other clients, we have asked for similar agreements to preserve our ability to represent you.)

No Guarantee. We will perform our professional services on your behalf to the best of our ability, but we cannot make and have not made any guarantees regarding the outcome of our work on this project. Any expressions by us about the outcome of this project are our best professional views only and are limited by our factual knowledge at the time they are expressed.

Questions or Additional Information. We hope this explanation will be helpful to you and invite you to feel free to discuss any concern with us at any time or to inquire at any time about the fees or costs incurred. It is extremely important that we proceed so that you and we have a clear and satisfactory understanding about the work to be performed. We will strive to keep you fully informed during the course of this engagement and anticipate that you, likewise, will keep us informed of pertinent developments.

Acceptance of Terms of Representation. If these Terms of Representation and the accompanying letter correctly and completely set forth our mutual understanding of the terms of our engagement, please sign a copy of the accompany letter and return it to our offices for our file.

Retention of Documents. You authorize Carmody MacDonald P.C. to destroy any and all records pertaining to this matter five (5) years after the conclusion of the representation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

1. Identity of Client; Scope of Representation. You are the only client of Carmody MacDonald P.C. (the "Firm") in this matter. The Firm will not be representing any of your affiliates, insurers, family members or related interests. You have engaged the Firm to advise and represent you in connection with the filing and administration of a Chapter 7 bankruptcy. You may expand the scope of our engagement or engage the Firm in connection with additional matters, but only through the execution by you and the Firm of an additional engagement letter describing the expanded scope of our engagement or the additional matter, as the case may be.

2. Attorneys Fees and Costs. The Firm has agreed, subject to Section 5, below, to represent you in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for a flat fee of $4,000, which represents our attorneys' fees. You also will be responsible for the filing fee of $335.00 and a $50.00 charge to run a credit report if you require one. You also will be responsible for any out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Firm in connection with our representation of you. The costs of the Debt Counseling and Financial Management classes you are required to attend are payable by you directly to the companies offering those classes.

3. Billing Statements. Because we are handling this case on a flat fee basis, you will not receive a billing statement after you have paid your flat fee unless there are out of pocket costs for which you are responsible or additional services rendered not covered by the flat fee.

4. Staffing; Scope of Services. Robert E. Eggmann will be the attorney at the Firm primarily responsible for this matter, but various portions of the work may be delegated to other attorneys and paralegals, as the Firm deems appropriate. The Firm will provide those legal services reasonably required to represent you. We will take reasonable steps to keep you informed of progress and to respond to your inquiries. This Agreement will govern all future services the Firm may perform for you in connection with your Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

5. Additional Services. The flat fee that you pay will cover the following: the preparation of your bankruptcy petition and schedules; attendance at your Meeting of Creditors; and the review of reaffirmation agreements. Any and all additional legal services you may need are not included in the flat fee and will be performed on an hourly basis at the applicable attorney's regular hourly rate. My hourly rate for this matter is $320. Possible examples of such additional services include the filing of motions and responses to motions filed by creditors (such as motions for relief from the automatic stay) and the Bankruptcy Trustee, appearing at a continued Meeting of Creditors, other appearances in the Bankruptcy Court, and preparation of any necessary amendments to your bankruptcy schedules.

The Firm does not report to credit bureaus. In the event that one or more of your credit reports is inaccurate and you wish to retain this Firm to assist with obtaining corrections of the report, that would be a separate engagement requiring a new engagement letter or other written agreement.

6. Questionnaire and Information to be Provided. You should have already received an electronic link to the Firm's Bankruptcy Questionnaire (the "Questionnaire"). The Questionnaire must be fully and accurately completed. Once you have completed the Questionnaire, you will click "Submit" and the Questionnaire will be electronically delivered to us. After you click Submit, you will lose access to the Questionnaire.

In addition to providing us the information in the Questionnaire, we will also need your last 2 filed state and federal income tax returns and your last 6 month pay stubs. You must take a credit counseling course. We recommend Cricket Debt and their card is included. Please use attorney code 559269. You will also have to take a second credit counseling course after you file bankruptcy and you can use Cricket for this course as well.

7. Client's Duties. You agree to be truthful and cooperate with the Firm, the Bankruptcy Court, and the Bankruptcy Trustee. In addition, you agree to keep the Firm informed of developments, to abide by this Agreement, to pay the Firm's bills on time and to keep the Firm advised of your address and telephone number. In addition, you must list all of your creditors and all of your assets in your response to the Questionnaire.

You are responsible for arranging, attending, and paying the costs of the Debt Counseling and Financial Management classes you are required to attend. You will pay the costs of the classes directly to the companies providing them. You must attend an approved Debt Counseling class before your case is filed and provide the Firm with a certificate of completion. You must also attend an approved Financial Management class within 30 days of the first date your Meeting of Creditors is scheduled and provide the Firm with a certificate of completion. If you do not timely attend the Financial Management class and timely provide us with a certificate of completion, your case will be closed without a discharge. In order to obtain a discharge, your case will need to be reopened and the certificate of completion will need to be filed. There will be an additional filing fee of approximately $250.00 to reopen your file and the attorney's fees will be $300.00 for the Firm to file a motion to reopen the case and request the discharge.

You must list all of your property and all of your debts on your bankruptcy schedules. If you have any doubt about whether any item of property must be listed in your bankruptcy schedules, please list it and bring the issue to our attention. Intentional misrepresentations on your bankruptcy schedules will result in a denial of your bankruptcy discharge and will subject you to criminal prosecution by the United States Department of Justice.

It is very important, if you own real estate or an automobile, that you make your monthly payments on time. The filing of bankruptcy does not relieve you from your monthly mortgage or automobile payments. If you are behind on your mortgage or car payment at the time of filing or fall behind during the case, the creditor will likely attempt to foreclose or repossess the property. If this happens, the creditor will file a Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay. This is a motion seeking court permission to foreclose on or repossess property. The Firm will not respond to this motion or attend the court date for this motion unless you retain us specifically for those purposes and the retention is confirmed by a separate engagement letter or other written agreement. Additional attorney's fees will be required. You will receive a copy of the motion from the Court. If you desire representation regarding the motion, it is your responsibility to contact the Firm and make financial arrangements at least five (5) days before any deadline to respond to the motion.

If you inherit money or property within six months from the date you file bankruptcy, you must contact the Firm or your Bankruptcy Trustee, immediately, and you must not spend the funds, as they are property of your Bankruptcy Estate.

8. Reaffirmation Agreements and Redemption. You have the right to reaffirm secured debts, provided that your payments are current on the date you filed bankruptcy. If you are not current, the secured creditor may require that you bring all payments current before entering into a reaffirmation agreement. If you own a home or a car, these are the two most likely debts to be reaffirmed. Some creditors will mail reaffirmation agreements directly to the Firm. Other creditors may not send any reaffirmation agreements. Timely filing of reaffirmation agreements will be your responsibility. Prior to filing bankruptcy, you may wish to contact the secured creditors in order to request that they send a reaffirmation agreement to the Firm. A reaffirmation agreement, exclusive of those dealing with personal property, must be signed by you, the secured creditor and me, and filed with the Court prior to the last date for creditors to file an objection to your discharge. You should also note that secured creditors may stop sending you monthly invoices upon your bankruptcy filing, and if your payment is made through an automatic bank account transfer or payroll deduction, the secured creditor may cancel these automatic payment features. Again, this is why it is important and your responsibility to contact the secured creditors prior to filing bankruptcy. It is also your responsibility to make timely monthly payments even if you do not receive a monthly invoice.

You should not sign a reaffirmation agreement unless you think it is in your best interests and will not impose an undue hardship on you and your family. You have 60 days to rescind the reaffirmation agreement from the date it is filed with the Court. The Firm requires at least three business days' notice in order to file a document rescinding the agreement and you will need to come to our office and sign the document prior to it being filed with the Court. If you do not rescind the agreement, it is a binding contract which removes the debt from the bankruptcy discharge provisions and exposes you to the risk of a deficiency claim should you subsequently default in payment or other terms of the original contract.

You should also be aware that any credit card claims are likely to be secured. For example, any tangible personal property you purchased from creditors such as Sears, Macy's, Best Buy, or a retail jewelry store, are likely to be subject to a security interest. The creditors retain a purchase money security interest in the property. You will have the option to redeem the property by making a lump-sum cash offer for the fair market value of the property. You also will have the option to reaffirm the debt by entering into an agreement to make monthly payments on the account, or you may simply pay nothing and surrender the property. Should you choose to redeem the property and it becomes necessary to file a formal motion with the Court for redemption, it is possible that we will quote an additional fee, and your in-court testimony is likely to be necessary.

9. Utilities. If your creditors include any utilities, please note that the utility company will stop your service and end the pre-petition billing immediately upon notice of the filing. They will offer you new service, but will require a deposit which is likely to be 3 or 4 times your highest monthly bill during the last year. Unless you can borrow funds to post the deposit, the utility company can discontinue service.

10. Transfer of Property. The United States Bankruptcy Code and a number of state laws forbid you to transfer or sell any property of any kind, until the Bankruptcy Trustee appointed to your case abandons his or her interest in your Bankruptcy Estate. This event usually takes place immediately after your Meeting of Creditors, which usually takes place one month after the date of filing. Additionally, the Bankruptcy Trustee can set aside transfers of property and recover payments of money to friends and relatives if made with one year of bankruptcy and, under some circumstances, within four years of bankruptcy. The Bankruptcy Trustee can also recover, from any creditor, any amount you paid the creditor in the 90 days prior to bankruptcy, if the payment was made under circumstances which are not in the ordinary course of business.

11. Bank and Credit Union Accounts. If you bank at a Bank or Credit Union and you have a loan with that particular institution, please be advised that the institution will likely freeze your account and apply the funds in the account to your loan balance. We advise you to close any such account or withdraw all money from the account before the bankruptcy is filed. You should also be aware that the value of any bank deposits or checking accounts will be determined, not by the listing in your schedules, but rather by the actual balance on the date of filing. Thus, the value of any checks which you have written, but which have not cleared on the date of filing, will not be deducted in determining the account balance included in the Bankruptcy Estate.

12. Tax Returns and Tax Refunds. Please be advised that Federal and State income tax refunds are an asset and are thus property of the Bankruptcy Estate. Depending on the amount of the refund, and applicable exemptions, you may have to surrender all or part of your tax refund to the Bankruptcy Trustee, for payment to the creditors. Do not spend your tax refund without approval from the Bankruptcy Trustee. This usually occurs at the first court date. Failure to comply with this paragraph may lead to the revocation or denial of a discharge, a money judgment against you for the refund amount, or criminal prosecution.

The Bankruptcy Trustee will require you to provide copies of your most recently filed tax return. The Bankruptcy Trustee will most likely want to see your tax return for the year in which you file your case, especially if you file in the third or fourth quarter of the year. If you are delinquent in filing tax returns, the Trustee may require you to file all delinquent tax returns and provide copies to the Trustee as a condition of receiving your discharge.

13. Disclosure of Income and Expenses. Please be advised that your income and expenses must be disclosed accurately. Please review all bankruptcy schedules to ensure payroll, income and expense accuracy.

14. Discharge and Withdrawal. You may discharge the Firm at any time. The Firm's attorneys representing you may withdraw with your consent or for good cause. Good cause includes your breach of this Agreement, including nonpayment of fees, your refusal to cooperate with the Firm or the Bankruptcy Trustee or to refrain from actions that the attorneys representing you consider repugnant or with which they have a fundamental disagreement, or any fact or circumstance which would render our continuing representation unlawful or unethical. Our withdrawal may be subject to court approval.

When the Firm's services conclude, all unpaid charges will immediately become due and payable. After the Firm's services conclude we will, upon your request, deliver your file to you, along with any funds or property of yours in our possession. Your file may be destroyed at any time after five (5) years from the closing of your bankruptcy case.

15. Disclaimer of Guarantee. Although we will make every effort to handle your case promptly and efficiently according to the highest legal and ethical standards, we make no guarantee as to the outcome of your case. You acknowledge that the Firm has made no guarantee regarding the disposition or results of any phase of this matter and that all expressions relative thereto are only our opinion as lawyers and are based on our knowledge of the facts, which are not necessarily complete.

In the absence of specific direction from you, the Firm reserves the right to make tactical and policy decisions concerning the time and place of necessary discovery, scheduling of court hearings, granting continuances voluntarily, and engaging in voluntary discovery or settlement negotiations. All settlement offers received will be promptly disclosed to you. Your final approval is, of course, required for any settlement affecting your personal and property rights or obligations, or any contested issue in the case. The Firm retains the sole right to make decisions relating to trial tactics or procedure.

16. No Recommendation by The Firm. The filing of a Chapter 7 may appear on your credit report for as long as ten (10) years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. You can only receive a Chapter 7 discharge once every 8 (eight) years. Debts which may not be discharged in a Chapter 7 case include but are not limited to most tax debts, child support, maintenance, student loans, court ordered fines and restitution, debts obtained through fraud, and debts incurred as a result of driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, do not cooperate with the Bankruptcy Trustee, destroy or conceal property, destroy, conceal or falsify records, or make a false oath.

Your signature on the enclosed engagement letter will confirm your consent to any and all representations of the types described in this Section 16 and waiver of any conflicts of interest inherent in any such representations. You should know that we would be ethically precluded from accepting any such representation, even with your consent, unless the other client also consented in writing to our representation of you and we reasonably believed that we would be able to provide competent and diligent representation to both clients. In addition, subject to certain exceptions specified in applicable rules of professional conduct, we would be ethically precluded from disclosing, or using to your disadvantage, any information relating to our representation of you. You also should know that, in engagement letters with many of our other clients, we have requested consents similar to those in this Section 16, in order to preserve our ability to represent you.

If, notwithstanding your consent, the Firm concludes that it cannot or should not continue to represent you while also representing another client in one or more matters in which it is adverse to you or any of your affiliates, insureds or insurers, the Firm will have the right to withdraw immediately from its representation of you. You acknowledge that the Firm's withdrawal in such circumstances will not breach any duty of loyalty or other duty of the Firm to you. If the Firm exercises its right to withdraw, you immediately will become a "former client" of the Firm for purposes of applicable rules of professional conduct.

17. Effective Date. This Agreement will take effect when you have performed the conditions stated in Paragraph 2, but its effective date will be retroactive to the date the Firm first performed services. Even if this Agreement does not take effect, you will be obligated to pay the Firm the reasonable value of any services we may have performed for you. This Agreement must be signed by you and returned to the Firm within fourteen (14) days or it shall be deemed null and void.

For you

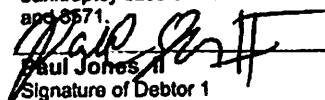

I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 8571.
